VENDITTIS' FABULOUS FRIDAY FELLOWSHIP

About 30 Rotarians and spouses enjoyed great fellowship – not to mention the delicious food – on Friday when Chris and Chris Venditti hosted First Friday Fellowship at their beautiful new home.

Baby Thomas Chittenden made his Rotary debut. He looks just like Bob and is as wonderfully even-tempered as his daddy. He never cried, but Thomas did appear perplexed by all the strange faces peering down at him.

(This is a new paragraph and has nothing to do with the one above.) Those who stayed later at the Vendittis' wished that a photographer had been on hand. Apparently some interesting photo ops occurred – "compromising" was the word used! Anyone care to elaborate?

NOVEMBER FIRST FRIDAY AT WINERY

On November 4, George Muller will be hosting First Friday Fellowship at Unionville Vineyards, East Amwell. We will have tours of the winery and wine tastings.

Following up on his recent Rotary program on wine and glass, George will provide his own glassware and prove to us that the shape of the glass really does make a difference!

To cover the cost of the wines we'll be drinking, we are charging $12 per person. A sign-up sheet will be passed around today. George would appreciate your payment ASAP.

PROGRESSIVE DINNER ON NOVEMBER 12

Wayne and Wendy Randolph are finalizing plans for our Rotary Progressive Dinner. We'll all be together for cocktails and hors d'oeuvres. Then we'll split into smaller groups for the next 2 courses – soup and salad, and entree. We'll be back together for dessert, coffee and fellowship. One of our most popular events, the Randolphs are doing a great job organizing it!

NEXT WEEK:

DISTRICT GOVERNOR'S VISIT

District Governor Andy Calamaras will make his official visit our club on October 26. We hope to have a good turn-out showing what a great club we are!

Board members, we meet with the DG at 11:30 am.

For this a "formal" visit, it is suggested that we wear business attire, even if we are retired. Also, a reminder that we all stand and applaud when the DG is introduced, and before and after he speaks.

HOLIDAY PARTY AT LAMBERTVILLE INN

"This year's Rotary Holiday Party will be December 14 in the River Room at The Inn at Lambertville Station," reports Fellowship Committee chair Chris Venditti, "and we have a really good meal planned. Don't miss it!"

Now the committee is planning the fun part of the evening. But, Rotarians, it's never too early to start looking for your funny Rotary exchange gifts!!

The party is free for Rotarians who pay quarterly for their lunches and for all spouses/significant others. Rotarians who pay for their lunches only the weeks they attend meetings will be charged only $13.

Because of the Holiday Party that evening, we will not have a lunch meeting on December 14.

MICK SCHAIBLE'S CLASSIFICATION TALK: LONG-AWAITED AND NOT REPORTED!

Last week's speaker didn't show up, continuing a recent trend. However, Mick Schaible volunteered to do his classification talk – only 7 years later.

Our NewsMonger Feature Writer of the Week figured that, since the speaker didn't show, he was off the hook. He put his paper and pen back in his pocket, and now can only remember the unprintable parts of Mick's life.

We'll do the best we can:

Robert Michael Schaible was named by his mother, but because his father was a huge fan of Mickey Mantle, he was called "Mickey" for years. Once away from home and childhood friends, he quickly shortened his moniker to "Mick."

After the usual course of education, Mick went to law school briefly. Deciding that wasn't for him, he got into real estate, eventually becoming a real estate appraiser.

Apparently, being an appraiser leaves him plenty of time for his leisure life. Mick lives here during the week, but spends weekends at his second home in Vermont. He says he's "passionate" about competitive mogul skiing, tennis and something else, like rock climbing, which this writer can't remember.

Mick admits to being single still. Ruth Green O'Brien asked, "Why still single?" Mick replied, "There is only one Ruth Green, and she just got married." Woo-woo!

THIS WEEK ON DESPAIR, INC.'S 2005 CALENDAR:

October 16, 2002: "O. J. Simpson tells reporters, 'For years I've been pretty sure I did not murder my wife. But if Johnnie's not 100% sure, maybe I better take another look at this.'"
