A total, $8,110 was collected in RFR ticket sales. The club's half of ticket sales will be donated to local charities.

Brady & Ziegler in the news

In case you didn't see last week's Hunterdon Democrat, two of our members made headlines:

- Lisa Brady, superintendent of Hunterdon Central High School, was a presenter at the World Forum Against Drugs in Stockholm Sweden, an event held two weeks ago. Representatives from 87 nations were present. Lisa was chosen by the White House office of National Drug Control Policy to speak about Central's success with random drug testing.
- Joe Ziegler, branch manager of Raymond James Financial Services, just received, along with his firm, the highest ranking in customer service from J.D. Power & Associates. The Power survey measured investment performance and customer service of 19 firms and Ziegler's firm led in all categories.

Ever heard of RYLA?

Rotary Youth Leadership Awards

This coming March, our club will have an opportunity to send two young people, high school sophomores or juniors, to a RYLA weekend at the YMCA camp in Newton, NJ. The annual camp is organized by District 7510.

RYLA is an intensive training program that lets young people debate issues of professional responsibility and human relations, improve leadership skills, learn about businesses and institutions, and meet Rotarians while having fun and making friends. It runs from Friday evening through Sunday night. Participants' expenses, about $225 next year, are paid by sponsoring Rotary clubs. The deadline for applications is expected to be in late January.

For more information, contact Tom Schleppebach, Flatwater7@aol.com, (908) 625-8723.

An RFR follow-up from Dennis Cox

(An e-mail from last week) Good Afternoon Ladies and Gents. Terry stopped by my office this morning with a gift from the Club (you folks) for my efforts on Sunday in support of Ride4Rotary. First and foremost, I would like to say thanks for this generous gift for Claire and I, however, I must say that it was not necessary. Everyone worked hard and I know that we can all say that it was good for all concerned. Happy to hear that it was a financial success and look forward to next year's event!
