SAC Committee Holiday Giving Update: Karen Widico reported last week that Flemington Rotary has helped to provide a nice Holiday for three (3) needy families in our local community. In previous years, SAC has identified families through the Flemington Area Food Pantry. This year, SAC worked with the Salvation Army as the Food Pantry is no longer involved in gift distribution. SAC has a budget of $1500 for holiday gifts, which were evenly distributed to the three needy families. A special thanks to Karen Widico, Gwen Williams and Lisa Brady who took the time to shop for the families and wrap the gifts!!!! As in the past, the question is always "how do we know that these families are not receiving support from multiple sources?" The Salvation Army indicated that there were several hundred families that have asked for help and only about half of that number was able to be helped. The unwrapped gifts that Rotarians brought to the Holiday Party were given to the Salvation Army for distribution to the other families that were not receiving support this year. A special thanks to Karen Widico and the SAC Committee for all of their hard work!!!!

Flemington Rotary HATS – For Sale: Bob Burgard purchased (20) Royal Blue baseball hats with the Rotary International Logo embroidered onto them. Bob is selling these just to recover his costs of purchasing them, which is $10 per hat. Payment shall be directly to Bob Burgard as he bought these himself on a first come, first served basis.
