Beverly provided a very nice explanation of the Food Pantry's services. The mission of the Flemington Area Food Pantry is to provide food to eligible citizens of Hunterdon County. The Food Pantry is a volunteer organization distributing food received from the citizens and businesses of Hunterdon County to persons certified by governmental social programs as well as those referred by leaders of county religious congregations. RCOF Check Presentation to Crime Stoppers: At the Wed, 4/3/2013 regular club meeting, Flemington Rotary presented a $3500 donation check to support Crime Stoppers of Hunterdon County. Crime Stoppers is a volunteer, non-profit (501c3 pending) organization that provides cash rewards for tips that lead to the arrest or indictments of persons involved in a crime. Crime Stoppers uses a combination of anonymity and monetary rewards to encourage individuals to come forward with information about crimes. They want people to Get Involved without “Getting Involved!!!” They note that too often, persons with vital information about crimes fail to contact the police because they fear retaliation or because they don’t want to testify in court. The result of their reluctance is that many dangerous criminals, who should be behind bars, are still walking the streets. Please note that if you see a crime being actively committed, they ask you to call 911.

How To Report A Crime Anonymously to Crime Stoppers:

1. Call the tip line at 1-800-321-0010. (Note the line has no recording device)
2. Submit Online: www.crimestoppershunterdon.com (Click on “tips” and fill out the online form)
3. Text HCTIPS and your tip to: 274637 (CRIMES)
4. Download the Free Mobile App “Tipsubmit” by Public Engines
