

28 SEPTEMBER 2005

Having a good time at the September Friday Fellowship were Rotarians Joe Ziegler, Chris Venditti and Terry Ownes.

FRIDAY FELLOWSHIP AT HEALTHQUEST...

on September 23 featured great food in a beautiful pool-side setting, thanks to Doug Steinly. Threatening weather may have discouraged some from attending, but the 12-15 people who showed up enjoyed themselves. And the rain held off until the party ended at around 8 pm.

Above, Ginger Ownes, left, and Christine Venditti, right, appreciated the efforts by Doug Steinly's assistant, center, to provide such good food. Below are others who enjoyed the party. Attending but not pictured were Loretta Ziegler, Catherine Langley, and Doug Steinly.

JOIN THE FUN NEXT WEEK AT OCTOBER'S FRIDAY FELLOWSHIP

Chris and Christine Venditti will host Rotary's next Friday Fellowship on October 14 at their new home. Time is 6 to 8 pm. Please RSVP to Chris.

AND AT UNIONVILLE WINERY IN NOVEMBER

George Muller has arranged a tour and tasting on November 4 at Unionville Vineyards, East Amwell. Following up on his recent Rotary program on wine and glass, George will provide his own glassware and prove to us that the shape of the glass does make a difference! A modest per person charge will cover the cost of the wines we'll be drinking. RSVP soon to George!

RI DAY AT THE UN

On November 5, Rotary International and the United Nations celebrate their long partnership in the fight against polio. All Rotarians are invited join the festivities at the UN. Spouses and children high school age and older are welcome. Get information and registration forms from Otto Reinbacher. Deadline is October 22.

PROGRESSIVE DINNER ON NOVEMBER 12

Wayne and Wendy Randolph are finalizing details for our Rotary Progressive Dinner. The plan is that we'll all be together for cocktails and hors d'oeuvres. Then we'll split into smaller groups for the next 2 courses -- soup and salad, and entree. We'll get back together for dessert, coffee and fellowship. We still need a couple more homes for the main course. One of our most popular events, the Randolphs do a great job organizing it!

HOLIDAY PARTY AT LAMBERTVILLE INN

This year's Rotary Holiday Party will be on December 14 in the River Room of The Inn at Lambertville Station. Fellowship Committee chair Chris Venditti has a fabulous meal planned. Now, the committee is planning the fun part of the evening. The board approved that all spouses/significant others may attend the party at no cost. Likewise, Rotarians who pre-pay their lunches attend free. Members who pay for their lunches only the weeks they attend meetings will be charged only $13.

HOT OFF THE PRESS!

Rotary membership directories will be distributed at next week's meeting.
