EXCHANGE STUDENT PROGRAM

Karen Widico requested club members help with hosting our exchange student. The program of hosting was intended to be a CLUB INITIATIVE. As such, three families in the Hunterdon Central School District are needed. If there is no support from the club, then the program should be cancelled in the future.

FOOD PANTRY DAY

John Zullo announced a successful collection for the Flemington Food Pantry with 30 cans of food and $88.00 donated. He reminded the members that the food pantry needs our help to unload a truck every first Friday at 9AM.

BOOK COLLECTION

The Program of DRIVEN TO READ has begun. Club Members will collect the donated used books from the participating auto dealers and take them to the storage area for sorting. Thereafter, the books will be distributed to worthy organizations in the area that will put them to use. Karen Widico agreed to help organize and Scott Birkner, Harry Woske, Lisa Reed, DJ Wright, Bob Burgard, Rev. Otto Reinbacher (Ret.), Floyd Deardorf, and Chris Venditti volunteered to help.

JOKE OF THE DAY

Craig Proctor said that a certain unnamed Rotarian was driving to work. His cell phone rang. He answered to find his excited spouse saying, "honey, watch out; the radio is reporting that someone is driving the wrong way on your route to work!" The reply was, "What do you mean? It's more like 100 drivers!!!!!"

MEMBER NEWS

Otto Reinbacher and Chris Venditti celebrated their birthdays with a dollar.

"EVERY ROTARIAN, EVERY YEAR - $100"

Otto Reinbacher reminded everyone to make their contribution to the Rotary Foundation. Rotarian magazine this month features actress Mia Farrow on the cover. She has been very active with Rotary International and the UN in the effort to eradicate Polio from the face of the earth. She suffered from polio as a child and has dedicated her life to fighting the spread of Polio.

MEDIATECH - www.mediatech.org

Warren Buckleitner and Will Richardson presented a brief but informative program on the status of Mediatech. In an effort to provide free access to all age groups, the computer lab has set up 18 high speed computers in the upper floor of the Flemington Library. They now have 520 members signed up, pre-school thru senior. They offer access to over 4000 software titles, including the popular SAT Test Prep for high school students. 17 members per day utilize the equipment which is available from 3 to 7 PM weekdays and noon to 5 PM on Saturdays.

FAME - Flemington Arts & Multimedia Expo

This program is a "juried competition designed to showcase the creativity of amateur artists in digital media such as digital photography, video and audio editing and web based design." This will be the first of its kind in the area, just as MEDIATECH was when it began with Flemington Rotary sponsorship in 2002. The steering committee will meet later in January at MEDIATECH in Flemington. Volunteers are needed to help organize and promote the Expo for the Spring of 2008.

Mediatech's goals are the same as our Four Way Test. This worthwhile program needs the support of the community which it serves. Flemington Rotary is a Service organization which supports the community and those efforts which improve and enhance the members of our community in need.
