Food Pantry Collection Today

Larry Sivilli and John Zullo said today is the day to bring in a food donation or $5 for the Flemington Area Food Pantry. Larry Sivilli, Floyd Dear-dorff, and Terry Owens helped unload the supply truck at the Food Pantry last Friday.

The Rotary Club of Flemington in Australia

President Bob announced that he received a letter from the Rotary Club of Flemington, in Melbourne, Australia. In March, they will be celebrating their 20th Anniversary. We are sending a congratulations wish for the event and will hoist a pint of Foster's to help them celebrate.

Jean Harris Award

The District is looking for nominees for the Jean Harris Award. Any non-Rotarian, woman or man, can be nominated. The nominee must be active in the ideals of Rotary, normally in service to the community.

First Friday Events

Chris Venditti was looking for ideas for future First Friday's. George Mueller was asked about going to the vineyards after the harvest to sample the new vintage. He will look into it for the club and try to set something up for the spring.

Member News

Harry Woske was reported doing well after double knee replacement surgery three weeks ago. He is home and is getting around on his own, sometimes without a cane.

On a sadder note, it was announced that Evelyn Shallo and her family are trying to cope with the grief of losing her brother. A sympathy card was signed by the club for Evelyn and her family.

Karen Widico introduced her lunch guest, Mert Towsun, our exchange student from Turkey. He was grateful to be there since, he said. His chores were done, Karen's house was clean and his bedroom (a closet) was picked up. (What a great kidder!)

Gene Lupo gave a dollar to celebrate his 56th Wedding Anniversary. Steve Parente shuddered as we all sang "happy birthday" to him.

George Muller was happy to announce that he and Linda are headed to Florida. Their son, Tom, is a Rotarian there with 2 Paul Harris Fellow recognitions. Tom is planning to surprise Linda with the gift of a Paul Harris Fellow.

GSE Team Leader Going to Greece

The District has selected Malena Farrell from Raritan Valley Insurance Services of Flemington to lead the District 7510 Group Study Exchange Team to Greece. GSE team members consist of 6 or so selected professionals (non-Rotarian) to travel abroad for 6 weeks (this time to Greece), as a cultural and business exchange, and will be host by Rotary Clubs there.

Meet Scott Birkner (Commercial Banking)

Scott gave his classification talk last week. He is a native of New Jersey, born in Summit. In 1992, he was selling cars and was an associate of Chris Venditti. He joined the North Hunterdon Rotary in 2002 after joining Unity Bank in Clinton. In 2006 he joined the team at the Hopewell Valley Bank, Ringoes, NJ, as branch manager.

Scott is married with two children and two dogs. His wife, Wendy, and their children, Caitlyn and Lea, spend a lot of their time minding their two Sharpei's, Harley and Bernie. His pastimes include his motorcycle and beginning Golf. They have a comfortable home in Holland Township and they are part of the Lancaster Rescue for Sharpei's.
