MEMBER NEWS

Terry Ownes spouse Ginger celebrated her birthday on May 8, 2007.

Karen Widico announced she and her husband are buying a house in Copper Hill.

Harry Mazujian's son will be back in the United States from the U.S.S Eisenhower.

GUEST SPEAKER

Karen Widico spoke about the Flemington Rotary Youth Exchange Program.

The first documented exchanges date back to 1927 when a Rotary Club in France initiated exchanges with other European students. Exchanges between clubs in the US began in 1939. In 1927, the RI Board of Directors agreed to recommend Youth Exchange to clubs worldwide, recognizing it as a worthwhile activity that promotes global peace and understanding. This year, more than 8,000 teens will be part of the Rotary Youth Exchange program, ensuring that they see the world as it is best seen—from the outside.

Rotary Exchange students spend a year living with a host family in a country other than their own. They may learn a new language, a new way of living, and a great deal about themselves. Not only will the Exchange students be learning, but the people they come in contact with will as well. The Exchange Student becomes an ambassador, helping to bring the world closer together. It broadens the horizons of both the host group and the host student.

Rotary looks for students that are juniors, seniors, or have graduated and are preparing for university/college. They must be in the top third of their class. Rotary also looks for students who are flexible, tolerant, quirky, and have a desire to learn about other cultures.

The students have the ability to say what countries they are interested in, although there is no clear preference/choice given to the students as to what country they will be going to. Outbound students have intensive orientation sessions each month prior to their departure in which they are given homework about their destination country. Upon arrival, students meet monthly with inbound students to talk about their experiences and difficulties. In addition, Exchange Students are assigned a counselor, separate from their host family, to help solve any problems they may be having.

Room and board is provided by the host family. The Exchange Student's family assumes certain financial responsibilities including round-trip airfare, health insurance, and pocket money. The Host Club more often than not provides a monthly allowance which is used for things such as haircuts, lunch money, friend's nights out, and other incidentals. In most cases, the host family pays for dinners out, entry fees to museums, games, and sites to see. The Exchange Student's family may, at times, be required to pay a fee to District for the student to participate. This depends on current governance and their policy. For instance, this year, District has not funded certain mandatory exchange trips, which have put an additional financial burden on the Host Club. Other years, District has incurred the cost. The host family assumes a major financial obligation, which may be offset by voluntary contributions from club members for certain events. More information on this topic will follow in upcoming NEWSMONGERS.
