IMPORTANT DATES

October 27 - 33rd Annual Pancake Day
7am to 3pm

Club of Flemington, Australia at the Rotary International Convention in Salt Lake City this year. We began the long distance interaction earlier in the year when we sent a letter of congratulations when the Flemington "down-under" club celebrated the 20th anniversary of their charter.

DG Julie Ann summarized our accomplishments. Service to Youth with our scholarship programs, reading to kids, Interact and International Youth Exchange began the list. Our Club Service and fellowship is exceptional. "You have fun at your meetings." Vocational Service is met with our involvement in Group Study Exchange (GSE) regular classification review, and participation in career night. Community Service is highlighted by support for the Food Pantry and includes our SAC (Service Action Committee), Tree Lighting, and annual donations to support the programs for the elderly, the youth and the infirm. Our International Service is highlighted by the Homes of Hope in Ecuador, Pedals for Progress and the many members who are a sustaining member of the Rotary Foundation.

The final push to eradicate Polio from the world is underway. Our district has a goal of $15,000. Polio Piggies (blue piggy banks) were distributed earlier and they need to be fed. Use them to empty your pockets or purses every night. Not just the pennies, nickels and dimes, but those quarters also. Let's show the world that we have the will to eliminate polio from the Earth with emphasis on Pakistan, Afghanistan, India and Nigeria.

The mission of Rotary is to PROMOTE WORLD PEACE, ONE PERSON AT A TIME.

Remember "SERVICE ABOVE SELF".
